Whew! There's Bite in the Air Now'days

But These Big Roomy Coats Are Certainly "The Stuff"

Nearly everybody is buying one of these big, comfortable, rough cloth coats. They have the "Hi-Button Neck" for storm and the convenient "turn-back-to-regular" for sunshiny cold. There's a big, burly, sturdy confidence in their generous proportions and real warmth and comfort in their rough, pure wool texture; make you fairly laugh at cold and spite Old Winter. They're right smart, too, and show splendid taste.

Extra Big Selection at $15

OAKLAND GOSSIP

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Potter of 231 Oakland avenue have returned home after a five weeks' visit with their son, Wilbur E. Potter and family, near Cedarvale, Kansas.

The people of Oakland, assisted by the Oakland school, have begun a series of literary and musical entertainments to be given at the Fraternity Brotherhood hall. The first of this series took place last evening before a large crowd of Oakland people.

The program consisted of recitations, readings, dialogues, music and a debate. The questions for debate were: "Resolved, That we owe more to environment than we do to heredity." Those who took the affirmative side were Mr. Vanorsdel, Miss Walt, Miss Reed and Miss Hotte. The negative speakers were Miss Dettlor, Miss Bost, Miss Whitaker and Mr. Lathrop.

Mrs. M. B. Beckenbaugh of 234 Forest avenue entertained the following guests at her home at dinner yesterday: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hummel, Mrs. O. L. Hummel and sons Hanson and Clyde and Ernest Crichley.

Mrs. L. E. Small and little daughter Dorothy of Horton, Kansas, spent Thursday the guests of Mrs. Small's sister, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, at 240 Forest avenue.

About sixty members of the Oakland Christian church surprised their pastor, Rev. H. V. Scholtes, at his home on Scotland avenue, Wednesday evening. The evening was spent with music and short talks by several of the church members, including an excellent one on "Fraternity," by J. B. Shaffer. At the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Resaugh, H. A. Little and daughters Isabel and Gerald, Mrs. Fred Laddington, Mr. and Mrs. John Smoler, D. M. Harmon, H. J. Newwinter, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Conway, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hoag and children, Mamie, Bert and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rathburn, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoyt and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jessop, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Birt and son Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Stein and Mrs. E. H. Moore and children, Lillian and Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. White, A. Jones, Miss Addie Ballar, J. C. Sanders, W. Coleman, Rev. and Mrs. Scholtes and children Vergil and Myrtle.

Mrs. D. A. Starr of Oakland avenue fell Wednesday evening and sprained her ankle badly. A doctor was called immediately and it was discovered that nothing more serious than the sprain had occurred.

Mrs. Starr is doing nicely today.

Mrs. H. M. Soles and little son Howard, Jr., of Amarillo, Texas, who have been visiting Mrs. J. C. Lingo at 27 Oakland avenue, spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting friends in West Topeka.

This evening they will leave for Mankato where they will be joined by Mr. Soles. They will spend a few days visiting friends there and then leave for their home in Amarillo, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hummel of 234 Winfield avenue will leave tomorrow for Kansas City and Leavenworth where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends.

The little three-year-old son of Frank Coffman at 45 Chester avenue was burned quite badly Wednesday evening. He and a little five-year-old sister were playing upstairs with matches. Some paper was set fire and caught the little fellow's dress.

He screamed and his mother hearing his cries rushed upstairs and smothered the flames. The child was burned most seriously under his arm and above the elbow of his arm. Dr. Heller was called and dressed the burns, which were quite deep.

Miss Myrtle Scholtes of Scotland avenue for some time is slowly improving.

Ernest Crichley of 234 Forest avenue left last night for Kansas City to spend a few days visiting friends there.

Revival meetings will begin at the Oakland Christian church Sunday, December 4. H. V. Scholtes, pastor.
